

Procedures at City Hall

Alien Registration

When going register as a foreign resident at the local City Hall, please bring your passport and two copies of a 4.5cm by 3.5cm photograph to be used for your Alien Registration Card portrait. After filing the papers, they will create an Alien Registration Card (Gaikokujin Touroku Shoumeishou) for you, which will be ready in about 1 month. If you decide to change your residence in Japan, you should update your address on your card before you move by taking it to the nearest City Hall with your new address information. For more questions, please contact the Citizen Registration Division at City Hall directly (0744-42-9111).

Shopping around

"Conbini" (Convenience Store)

Conbini are like extremely condensed supermarkets that are open every day of the year, from early morning till late at night (sometimes even 24hrs). They are especially useful because they sell all manners of prepared "bento" meals, which are extremely useful for those who have no time to make dinner in the evenings, or else live alone and cannot cook for themselves. Another useful thing is that you can pay your utility bills at most conbini nowadays. Again, Japanese is not terribly necessary.

These stores have wide selections of various types of home improvement/remodeling/building materials, car parts, gardening equipment, etc. Most of these stores are along a major road, and are easy to spot. Especially when buying large or complicated materials, knowledge of Japanese is necessary.

*100 Yen Shop

All items in this store are only 105 yen (including tax). 100 yen shops have all manners of household products, and nearly anything you can imagine that could be feasibly be priced so low. You need only put everything in your shopping cart, and bring it to the register to pay. Japanese is not necessary.

Recycle Shop

You can buy all sorts of secondhand clothing, electronics, and household items here for reasonable prices, and also sell your own unwanted things. Japanese is necessary if you intend to sell.
